Leisure Case study

Fitness must come first...

Getting the work life balance right is never easy, making leisure and fitness centres vital to ensure that keeping healthy and fit is a way of life.

Clean and tidy changing and work-out spaces are essential to the overall impact and success of leisure and fitness centres. Anabas continuously strives to ensure the right level of service and support is always delivered to achieve this.

LA Fitness Case study

ANABAS™

National leisure group LA Fitness has 86 health and fitness clubs and over a quarter of a million members throughout the UK, Northern Ireland and Eire.

The project

Anabas is providing a full range of cleaning and support services to the national leisure group, working in partnership with them to improve cleaning levels throughout its clubs. One of the key initiatives is the development and implementation of a national model for cleaning delivery.

The Anabas approach

Not only are we renowned for our consistently high service, but our determination and dedication as a service partner ensures that we always deliver. As a company, we will literally go the extra mile to ensure that our clients are always satisfied, and in this instance see our work with LA Fitness as a marathon, not a sprint.

Service delivery

- General cleaning
- Wet area cleaning
- Support services
- Helpdesk
- Cleaning auditing

Don't just take our word for it...

"Throughout our strategic review of facilities management providers, we felt that Anabas demonstrated unrivalled focus, drive and understanding of our needs. Anabas's offering comprises 24 hour centralised support, a national network, dedicated regional managers, bespoke performance management and cost transparency – a winning combination."
